

National Operational Guidance

NFCC
Fire Central
Programme Office

Developed and maintained by the NFCC

---

Contents

Summoning assistance ..... 3

Summoning assistance

---

Wherever possible, radio communications should be used to summon assistance. If radio communications are not available, BA wearers may gain the attention of other team members or BA teams by slow, loud and regular handclapping. These actions do not constitute a distress signal.